HOLISTIC CURRICULUM

MONTHLY THEME: PURPOSE

CITY LIFE

*SPIRITUAL AND MORAL LITERACY

- Have leaders share about how they found their purpose in life through knowing God
- Do a workshop on how God created us each different and with a purpose. Do dream boards, and have a time of sharing for each student to say what they feel like they are gifted at, and what they believe some of their purpose is. Allow time for their peers and leaders to affirm and add to what was spoken!

*EDUCATION LITERACY

- Do a workshop on skills/interests that is keyed towards discovering a meaningful career
- Have an educator come and share the purpose behind our education system and why school is set up the way it is. Have a forum/discussion with your students on what they learned and what is/isn't working for them on this.

*BASIC HEALTH AND SAFETY LITERACY

- Go on a field trip to a local hospital or medical clinic to tour it, learn it's origin and what it's purpose is.
- Do a workshop on first aid/CPR to students and leaders
- Have a self defense instructor come and teach the purpose of it and some basic skills

*ECONOMIC LITERACY

- Do a study on the purpose of money and how God sees it
- Have a guest speaker (banker/financial expert/loan officer) share about the purpose of credit/bank accounts/saving, etc.

*SOCIAL AND CIVIC LITERACY

- Have students brainstorm community service projects for themselves. Have them write up a purpose statement for the project
- Have a guest speaker from the local government/civic service come and share why they got into their line of work and how they found purpose and meaning in it. Also, it is fun to tour these places too (i.e. city hall, fire department, police department, etc.)
