Understanding Different Religious Viewpoints

What is a Worldview

- A worldview is the framework by which we view reality and make sense of life and the world
- "It's an ideology, philosophy, theology, movement or religion that provides an overarching approach to understanding God, the world and man's relations to God and the world (David Noebel, Understanding the Times)"
- Whether conscious or subconscious, everyone has a worldview. A personal worldview is a combination of all you believe to be true, and what you believe to be true, and what you believe becomes the driving force behind every emotion, decision and action (economics, theology, social order, politics...ect)
- Example: Say you bought in to the idea that Beauty is in the eye of the beholder (secular relative truth) as opposed to beauty as defined by God's purity and creativity (absolute truth). Then any art piece, no matter how vulgar or abstract, would be considered "art," a creation of beauty.

Biblical Worldview

- A biblical worldview is based on the infallible Word of God. When you believe the Bible is entirely true, then you allow it to be the foundation of everything you say and do
- YFC holds this worldview

This is not about winning

- Conversations about religion is not about attacking/arguing with teens you work with (who do not hold to the same worldview), it is about understanding the teens you work with
- Respect given is respect earned
  - "...always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect (1 Peter 3:15)"
- Understanding the worldview of a young person does not only demonstrate love and respect, but also stages an opportunity to share the life-changing message of the one and only true living God
  - "Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone (Colossians 4:5-6)"

Popular trends among young people

- “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it, but small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it (Matthew 7:13)”
